

#10

Richardson

RETRACTOR

Length: 9 1/2 IN

Inventor: Maurice Howe
Richardson

EST.
1907

Retractor Richardson 25x25mm, 9 1/2 in

Common Uses:

Appendectomy Procedures, Cesarean Sections and Laparotomy

Properties:

- Blade is Right Angled
- Slight "Lip" at the Tip
- Concave Blade

Variations:

- Various Lengths and Blade Sizes
- Standard or Hollow Grip
- Swivel or Right-Angled Blade

Function:

The Richardson Retractor is a handheld, single or double ended, right angled or swivel retractor used for holding back multiple layers of deep tissue.

Did you know?

Richardson Retractors are often mistaken as Kelly Retractors; however, the Richardsons feature shorter and smaller blades

